

ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURE

A method to allow an exempt organization to retain the services of one or more non-exempt organizations, including network marketing organizations, and pay such non-exempt organization(s) for the sale or performance of such services before all such credit repair services are performed, while maintaining compliance with law.